

Much of the history of Chautauqua is captured in the names of streets, gardens and buildings—Miller, Lenna, Smith Wilkes, Campbell, Gebbie, Oliver and so many more. A hundred years from now, how will people remember who is responsible for passing Chautauqua on to them and their children? By endowing, in perpetuity, a program or staff position—in honor of yourself or someone you love—you help to write history. Through such a gift, you sustain and improve the experience of Chautauqua for all the years to come.

Chautauqua Institution provides an increasingly rare forum for the respectful exchange of divergent ideas and an unparalleled, inter-generational experience that mixes the artistic, intellectual, and spiritual energies of presenters and patrons alike. Together we engage in interfaith discussion, witness the products of Chautauqua’s schools of fine and performing arts, take on a bounty of recreational opportunities, and seek out a wide range of literary pursuits. Endowment strengthens and supports every element of Chautauqua’s program. As we expand its reach, we secure the promise of Chautauqua as the preeminent expression of lifelong learning anywhere today or in the future.
