NOTICE

CHAUTAUQUA COUNTY OCCUPANCY TAX RATE IS 5%
The Chautauqua County Occupancy Tax Rate of 5% applies to all room rentals of individual stays less than 30 days consecutive rented directly by the owner or through a 3rd party such as Air BnB. Owners of lodging facilities within the County, including but not limited to cottages, apartments, hotels/motels, bed and breakfasts, guest houses and condominiums should contact the Chautauqua County Department of Finance, not the New York State Department of Taxation, for clarification on this law. Willful failure to comply is punishable by a misdemeanor with up to a $1,000 fine and/or one year imprisonment. The requirement to pay this tax differs from New York State Sales Tax Law.

Revenues from the County’s Occupancy Tax are dedicated solely to enhancing the lakes, tourism, and tourism related activities including funding for the arts and museums.

For complete details go to www.co.chautauqua.ny.us/finance or contact the Finance Department at (716) 753-4233.

BUFFALO PHILHARMONIC ORCHESTRA

The BPO is going to Poland! Gershwin and Bernstein
March 10-11 previews the tour program, featuring Gershwin’s jazz-inspired Piano Concerto and works of Barber, Kryzstof Penderecki, and Bernstein’s Symphonic Dances from West Side Story.

Fire and Rain – Songwriters of the 70s takes a nostalgic journey through the rich harmonies and beautiful melodies of James Taylor, Joni Mitchell, Jackson Brown, Carole King, Neil Young, and more on April 27-28.

The BPO presents an unforgettable rock experience on March 2, at The Very Best of Dave Mason, when the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame guitarist joins the BPO with his rock band.

March 3, John Morris Russell conducts Hollywood’s most dazzling music from James Bond, Lord of the Rings, Les Miserables, Titanic, Gone with the Wind, and more in A Night at the Oscars. Stay for the Oscar after-party!

Join JoAnn Falletta for A Journey to the New World April 21-22 and celebrate the American immigrant experience in this multimedia concert featuring actor portrayals and projected images from the Ellis Island archives.

On March 4, Peter and The Wolf, the classic symphonic fairy tale for children, includes close-up video of the instruments depicting each character.

The BPO can take you on a journey of joy, humor, drama, and euphoria – experience the power for yourself!

SUMMER CLASSES WITH KAYE LINDAUER

Courses offered through Special Studies (fee)
Daily Participants Welcome (space available basis)
Stories retold with commentary focusing on Jungian psychology highlight many of the classes. DVD clips from multiple productions frequently included.

Week one: The Virgin Mary in Western Art
The historical overview of images of Mary will be coupled with commentary on the art. What influence have artists had on the popular and understandings of Mary? Hear about how theology and psychology come together in the study of Mary included.

Week two: (no class on July 4) Interpretation of Fairy Tales
The Princess and the Twelve Pairs of Dancing Shoes along with other stories will be retold with a commentary influenced by Jungian psychology. Story myth, character/personification, archetype energies, shadow influences and the individuation process will be emphasized.

Week three: Van Gogh: His Life and Work
Yes, the artist did cut off his ear in a state of madness! Come to know this genius more fully through the re-reading of stories of his life and the history of his revolutionary new art.

Week four: Poetic Perspectives on Aging
Poetry, stories retold with commentary, paintings, film clips, etc. will be brought together for a creative look at the joys and challenges of the aging process.

Week five: Emily Dickinson and Carl Jung
The life and poetry of Dickinson will be used to illustrate psychological concepts. Both Jung and Dickinson were interested in the soul and wrote about the full range of human emotions and experiences. They showed a great need for solitude and their work is having an important influence on seniors today.

Week six: Greek Mythology
The story Of Odysseus will be retold with commentary influenced by Jungian psychology. Athena was a princess in ancient Greece and much loved by the goddess Artemis. Within the myth is the episode of the great Calabrian bear hunt. Famous paintings inspired by the myth included.

Week seven: Swans
“Swan Lake” will be retold with excerpts from several ballet productions. Additional swan stories including “The Children of Oddvar” will be included along with a review of how poets have metaphorically used the image of the swan to express important ideas.

Week eight: Jungian Psychology
Alchemy, dreams, active imagination, mythology, the numerical, “The Red Book,” and other topics will be covered. The goal of studying analytical psychology is to become more aware of the complexity of the human psyche.

Week nine: Cinema and Psyche
The most successful films speak to the archetypal nature of being human. Film excerpts will be used to explore basic concepts of depth psychology.

Registration begins later in the spring, date to be announced.
