Welcome to the 2019

How to Plan Your Visit

This booklet outlines all long-term ticket options and information about many other services and tickets.

1. Find Accommodations

Finding accommodations should be your first priority when planning a visit to Chautauqua Institution.

All accommodations within the Institution's grounds are privately owned except for the Athenaeum Hotel.

To explore and secure accommodations, visit accommodations.chq.org

2. Order Gate Pass

Please ensure that your gate pass dates are the same as your accommodation dates.

• Gate Pass

A gate pass is required to enter the grounds. Age 12 and under require registration but not a gate pass purchase. A reduced gate pass is available for ages 13 to 25. A complimentary gate pass is available for guests who are age 90 or older in the current year.

The gate pass is your passport to the Chautauqua Experience, giving you access to most events on the grounds. Additional purchases are not required to attend lectures or religious services, as well as popular entertainment and Chautauqua Symphony Orchestra performances in the Amphitheater. Gate passes include General Admission seating in the Amphitheater; see the Amphitheater Events section on Page 18 for more information. The gate pass also includes access to art galleries, beaches, parks and complimentary shuttle and tram service on the grounds.

3. Purchases in addition to the gate pass

• Amphitheater Preferred Seating

Upgrade to the best seats in the house for select concerts. Preferred seating is in the floor section.

- Preferred 1 or 1+ section: Closest to stage; seating is reserved and held for the duration of the performance.
- Preferred 2 section: Seating is unreserved, on a first-come basis and converts to General Admission seating at the start of the performance.
- Preferred General section: For events with one Preferred section. Closest to the stage; follows the Preferred 2 section policy.

Season! June 22–August 25, 2019

3. Additional Purchases (continued)

- Parking Pass
Required for on-grounds and Main Lot parking.
- Opera and Theater
Opera performances in Norton Hall. Theater performances in Bratton Theater.
- Mooring and Boat Registration Fees
All boats must be registered. Mooring rentals are available for ramps, buoys and slips.
- Recreation Activities
Sign up for golf, tennis or fitness center programs.
- Special Studies Classes
Lifelong learning with more than 400 classes offered.
- Youth Programs
Including preschool, day camp, tennis, sailing, golf and Special Studies classes.

BICYCLES / MOBILITY DEVICES

Privately owned bicycles and mobility devices (scooters) must be registered. There is no charge for registration or the sticker. Registration stickers never expire. Registration can be done when placing your order or upon arrival at the Welcome Center Ticket Office.

Scooter Rentals:

Chautauqua Institution offers scooter rentals during the season. Scooter rentals are limited and reservations are recommended. Reservations begin May 31 for full-week rentals. A credit card deposit is required; there is a non-refundable deposit for any cancellations of rental reservations. If available, rentals for less than one week are arranged in person on the day of the rental at the Main Gate Welcome Center Information Office.

Special Studies class registration begins April 10. Early registration is recommended.

Special Studies Classes

Classes in a variety of subjects, for youth and adults, are offered through Chautauqua's Special Studies program. The diverse curriculum includes master classes with Amphitheater speakers, courses through the School of Art, School of Dance and Chautauqua Writers' Center, and more than 400 classes in subjects ranging from computers and finance to fitness and the culinary arts.

For more information, visit classes.chq.org

Register for Special Studies classes the same way you place an order. See Page 4.

Registration Procedures for Youth Programs

Group size is limited, so early registration is strongly recommended. Many groups routinely reach capacity and late registrations are turned away.

Register for youth programs the same way you place an order. See Page 4.

It is required that you include each child's date of birth, the grade your child will be entering in the fall (if school age) and the child's gender. This information is needed to place your child in the correct class or group and to maintain appropriate enrollment levels. Registrations without this information will be considered incomplete and will not be processed.

In-Season Registration (starting June 22)

Beginning June 22, you may register for youth programs in any way mentioned on Page 4, or you may register in any of the following ways:

Sundays

In person at the Hultquist Center from noon to 3 p.m. each Sunday throughout the season. Please note: There will be no on-site registrations at Boys' and Girls' Club or Children's School on Saturdays or Sundays.

Monday–Friday

In person, on site, at Boys' and Girls' Club or Children's School/Group One during regular program hours, beginning at 8:30 a.m. or by telephone at:

Children's School/Group One 716-357-6278

Registration Hours: 8:30 a.m.–Noon

Boys' and Girls' Club 716-357-6295

Registration Hours: 8:30 a.m.–Noon, 2–4 p.m.

Fees and Required Forms

Fees: Registration in these programs is only for a full week (Monday–Friday). Consecutive and non-consecutive weeks receive the multiple-week rate.

Required Forms: Links to access the required health/emergency information forms are available at youthforms.chq.org.

Children's School

Chautauqua Children's School is a developmental preschool for youth ages 3–5. The school operates six classrooms from 9 a.m. to noon Monday to Friday.

Each classroom is staffed with certified teachers, college-age education majors, and high school students. The teachers work as a team and share classroom responsibilities.

Please note that children must be at least 3 years old at the time they attend Children's School and must be toilet trained.

Group One

Group One is designed for children who will be entering first grade in the fall. This program runs from 9 a.m. to noon and from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Friday, using Children's School and Sheldon Hall of Education facilities in the morning and Boys' and Girls' Club facilities in the afternoon. Group One is intended as a transition between these two programs and includes active play, art activities, swimming/waterfront programs and special events. Children receive an orientation to both facilities during the first morning.

Group One is staffed with certified teachers, qualified college graduates, and college-age and high school-age assistants. The same leaders stay with the children throughout the day. Certified waterfront staff are used for afternoon activities at Club.

For more information, visit groupone.chq.org

Boys' and Girls' Club

Boys' and Girls' Club is a day camp program for youth entering second grade through 10th grade in the fall. Club is in session from 9 a.m. to noon and from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Friday. Located on the lakefront, Club provides a diverse program that includes field activities, swimming, canoeing, kayaking, sailing, nature, crafts, individual and team sports, music and arts.

Club is a registered day camp and operates under the guidelines and regulations of the New York State Department of Health.

The Boys' and Girls' Club staff includes certified teachers, other college graduates and adult professionals, and college and high school students. The Youth Leadership program provides skill-building and practical experiences and offers educational opportunities through Special Studies to 16-year-olds preparing to become counselors.

Boys' and Girls' Club Plus

Club Plus joins the traditional day camp experience with an interdisciplinary curriculum in the arts and sciences. After spending the morning at Club, campers will participate in age-appropriate afternoon classes and activities that combine STEM education, literary arts and visual arts. Afternoon classes will be led by certified teachers and industry experts. Club Plus capacity is limited; register early. Enrollment fee is $40 per week in addition to regular Boys' and Girls' Club enrollment.

Policies

Use of Gate Pass: A valid gate pass must be presented for scanning on each entrance to and exit from the grounds and into the Amphitheater. If asked, you must be able to produce a valid gate pass while within the grounds of Chautauqua Institution. The gate pass and its use is governed by the laws of the State of New York including Sections 170.05 and 190.25 of the Penal Law relative to forgery and criminal impersonation. The bearer of this pass agrees to obey all the rules and regulations of Chautauqua Institution. A pass that is issued to a named individual is non-transferable. Violation of said rules and regulations will cause forfeiture of all rights granted hereunder.

Commercial Photography: Chautauqua Institution, or its affiliates, may photograph, film, videotape, record or otherwise reproduce the image and/or voice of any person on Chautauqua Institution or Chautauqua Hotel Company property, and use same for any purpose without payment to any person.

Amphitheater Events: Amphitheater gates open approximately one hour before the scheduled start of the event.

Amphitheater seating included with long-term gate pass is General Admission. General Admission seating is unreserved and on a first-come basis. For high-attendance and sold-out events, we recommend arrival at the Amphitheater 20 minutes or more before start time. Standing Room tickets may be sold for these events; these ticket holders will be admitted to the Amphitheater 15 minutes before start time and may be seated in General Admission areas if seats remain at that time.

Processing Fee: There is a processing fee added to each online, phone, fax or paper order. This fee helps defer mailing costs and credit card fees.

Pricing subject to change.
