

2013 report on giving: annual gifts & capital projects

We offer our deep gratitude to the many individuals, families and organizations whose generous gifts have collectively generated $3,600,669 inside the 2013 Chautauqua Fund. This total, the largest amount celebrated in the history of the Chautauqua Fund, marks the 22nd consecutive year of increased giving to the annual fund and is a significant part of the $10.6 million raised for the annual fund through The Promise Campaign.

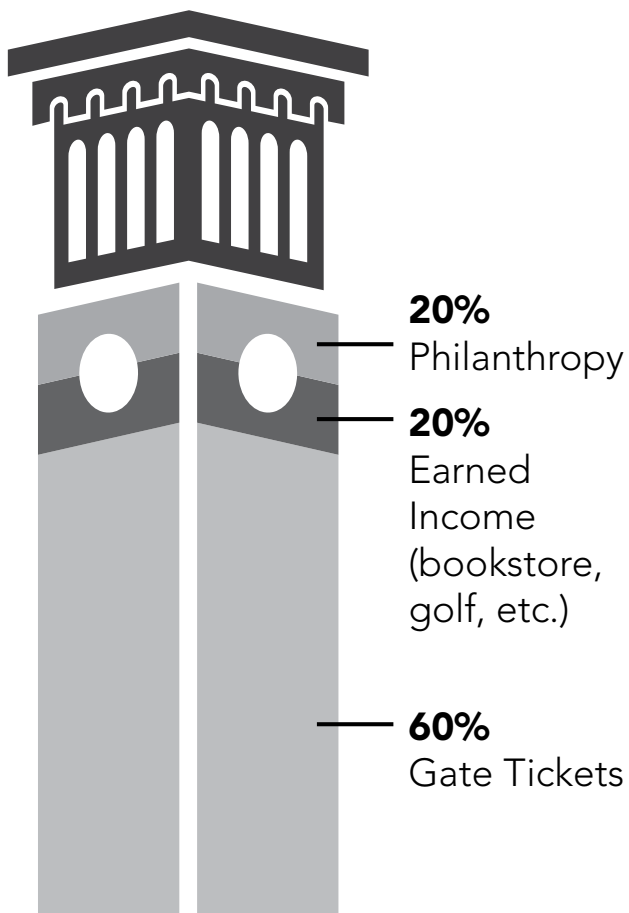

We are delighted to report that 504 of these gifts are from new donors affirming the importance of each and every gift, regardless of amount, to the success of our efforts in supporting the quality of the Chautauqua experience. Leadership participation was equally valuable as members of both the 1874 Society and Bestor Society collectively contributed 85% of all dollars raised.

The success of the Chautauqua Fund depends upon the almost 150 volunteers who give their time to ask other Chautauquans, patrons and community residents for their support. The group was enthusiastically led by Jack and Yvonne McCredie, and we express here our appreciation for their efforts and our genuine gratitude to each and every volunteer. (A complete list of volunteers is on page 2.)

Those who have provided additional support through a corporate matching gift are identified by (+).

Families who participated in matching gift opportunities on either Annual Fund Day or Giving Tuesday in 2013 are identified by (*).

Funding the Chautauqua Experience

Gifts to the annual Chautauqua Fund have the most immediate impact on innovations to the program and in our ability to produce an unparalleled experience for families. While ticket sales help alleviate program expenses, generous personal philanthropy accounts for 20% of the gap between these real costs and the immeasurable value of the collective experience.
