(Scene 1: Inside)

Jackie: It is so cold today

(Maddie wakes up and yawns)

Maddie: Burr it's cold

Jackie: I know! I wonder why? I'll go look outside

Maddie: Ok

Jackie: Oh no! It's snowing!

Maddie: Already?

Jackie: Yeah! I mean I love the snow but it's only July!

Maddie: I didn't think about that we have to do something about this!

Jackie: You are right, but how do we do that?

Maddie: I don't know.

(Both thinking)

Jackie: Ah ha we can fly up to the sky and put a blanket over where the snow comes out until December!

Maddie: Great!

Jackie: Ok, let's build a rocket!

Maddie: Perfect!

(Finally done making the rocket)

Jackie: Ok, It's done!

Maddie: Let's pack it with food!

Jackie: Ok

(Putting in cookies, ice cream, chocolate, and pudding)

Maddie: Let's get in!

(They get in their successful rocket sitting in the grass and zoom off into space with their huge blanket eating all of their food)

Jackie: We're here!

Maddie: Wow it's cold!

(They put the blanket over the snow and then they zoom back home)

Maddie: We'll save the rock. We both have to go back in December.

(4 months later in December on the first)

Jackie: Wake up

Maddie: What

Jackie: It's December first

Maddie: So?

Jackie: That means that we have to fly in our rocket to take the blanket off so it can snow!

Maddie: Yeah I forgot all about it!

Jackie: Let's go it's supposed to snow in December

Maddie: Ok

Jackie: We are ready let's go!

(Both girls get in the rocket and zoom into the sky and take off the blanket and go home proud of what they did!)
