Giraffe: I want to cross the line but I can't.

Elephant: Why can't I cross the line?

Giraffe: Maybe I can't cross the line because I have too much fur on me!

(Giraffe found a stick & Pulled it down. A bridge popped out of the ground)

Giraffe: (Speaks first and says) do you want to cross or should I cross?

Giraffe: I can not do this because I have fur.

Elephant: & I can't do this because I have no fur.

Giraffe: Maybe I should shave my fur and come over there.

(Giraffe shaves his fur and there are spots under the fur.)

Then Giraffe comes over on with Elephant.

And that's how Giraffes have spots and live in Africa.

THE END!
