

MAIRY AND THE LIGHTBULB
By Avery Cannon

Grade 4, Chautauqua Lake Central School

Characters:

Mairy – 28
Lightbulb – 5

Setting:

Cooking factory

Problem:

She can't change her lights

Mairy: Laal laa laa lala

Lightbulb: I give up I can't keep the lights on anymore!

Mairy: Hey. The lights went out. I'd better change them. I can't change them oh oh!

Lightbulb: Mairy is going to try and unscrew me! A can you oooooo STOP

Mairy: Did someone say something?

Lightbulb: Ooooo no hee hee

Mairy: I am going to go look for a new lightbulb.

Lightbulb: This is my chance I better try and turn on.

Mairy: Ow the lights turned on. Wow. Was I daydreaming.

Lightbulb: NO! You weren't daydreaming.

Mairy: I better start cooking before the customers come.

Lightbulb: Ha I turned on ya I can accomplish anything!

Mairy: The customers are coming. I better change the lights so it doesn't go out again.

Lightbulb: Ho oh I better jump out of the ceiling I hope!

Mairy: I am coming mmmmmmm need to find one somewhere!

Lightbulb: Somebody wait...Lightbulbs get me out of here please!!!!

Mairy: I screwed him out that wasn't so hard.

Lightbulb: Well that didn't hurt that bad. No don't throw me in the trash! Wow it is gross in here.

Mairy: I'd better put a new lightbulb in before they come.

Lightbulb: I have to climb out then going in the new lightbulb box but how? Here I'll climb on that plastic bag then get out yes I should. Do I look handsome to you?

Mairy: Hah wait their here I better get cooking.

Lightbulb: I am making so many friends. I love this place. Hello. How are you? Good thank you. Well howdy folks. Oooooo cowboy. (Now he is in the lightbulb box with all the other lightbulbs)

(Mairy cooks scallops)

The end!