

Professional Development For Teachers

A team consisting of Chautauqua Institution, Jamestown Public Schools and Chautauqua Lake Central School was honored in 2016 as one of 10 new inductees in the Kennedy Center Partners in Education Program. Inspired by the partnership, this team now offers five arts integrated professional development workshops for area educators. Arts integration provides a differentiated approach to teaching and learning that can inspire, engage and motivate teachers and students alike through collaborative and creative learning in the classroom.

Arts Integration is an APPROACH to TEACHING in which students construct and demonstrate UNDERSTANDING through an ART FORM. Students engage in a CREATIVE PROCESS which CONNECTS an art form and another subject area and meets EVOLVING OBJECTIVES in both.
