

The Art Studio

by Malonna Watkins

SCENE I

Setting: The art studio

Jill: (painting a picture) Oh oh, why is Kevin in my art studio again? What are you going to do?

Devil Kevin: I am going to ruin your picture!

Jill: Get out of my shop now!

Kevin: But I do not want to!

Jill: (pulling towards the door) I said get out!

Kevin: I said 'no'! (he ruins Jill's painting)

Jill: (crying) Please, stop! Please!

Kevin: No, I don't want to!

Jill: (falling to the ground crying) Please, I beg you!

Kevin: Why do your paintings mean so much to you?

Jill: (looks up at Kevin with tears) They are my feelings about me. My paintings tell a story.

Kevin: I didn't know that. You should have told me in the beginning.

Jill: Do you want to try painting with me?

Kevin: I'm a little bad at painting

Jill: It's okay. Let's try.

SCENE II

Setting: The art studio

Jill: (picks up paint brush and dips her brush in paint) You can choose one color or mix two colors to get another one. It's so fun.

Kevin: (picks up his brush and copies Jill) My favorite color is red.

(Kevin paints on his canvas and smiles)

Jill: See, you just have to tell me you want to paint. It's easy to do.

Kevin: I'm sorry I ruined your pictures. But now I know to ask.

Narrator: (Kevin gives Jill his painting when he is done)

Jill: Thank you for the painting.

(Kevin and Jill hug each other and become good friends)
