Interest in 2020 Activities

As we eagerly await details of what CTC has planned for us virtually this summer, we also want to gauge your interest in ancillary activities for Friends of CTC. Please give us your feedback below, checking as many as apply.

If you are planning to be on the grounds this summer, please check any of following activities that would interest you, after we each observe the mandatory 14 day self-quarantine and continue to comply with recommended health and safety protocols:

- Friends play readings as an audience member
- Friends play readings as a reader
- "Book group" to discuss plays
- Moderated play discussions
- Porch chats about general theater topics

Would you be interested in the following activities online/virtually:

- Friends play readings as an audience member
- Friends play readings as a reader
- "Book group" to discuss plays
- Moderated play discussions
- Porch chats about general theater topics
- Online interviews and Q&A with actors, playwrights and other theater professionals?

Are there other activities you recommend?

Please return this to us by mail:
