

CHAUTAUQUA COUNTY

BATTLE OF THE BOOKS

Presented by Chautauqua Institution

May 18, 2019 • 3:00 p.m. • Chautauqua Institution

Battle of the Books is a lively academic competition that improves reading comprehension, builds vocabulary and teaches teamwork and sportsmanship. This program will culminate in a “battle” held at Chautauqua Institution on May 18 for fifth-graders in Chautauqua County.

How It Works

Teams of five students and one adult coach each read the same 12 pre-assigned books over five months. Selected in conjunction with Chautauqua Institution’s CLSC Young Readers Program, titles include a wide range of reading levels and subjects.

Teams will gather for the Battle on May 18 and answer trivia questions related to the books.

Prizes include trophies, books and medals!

Information Session

October 23 at 6:00 p.m.

Turner Community Center at Chautauqua Institution,
4840 West Lake Road, Chautauqua, NY 14722

Registration/Questions

Visit the website or email youth@chq.org for more information or to register a team.

Registration ends Nov. 16, 2018.

Visit the website for:

- 2019 book list (announced Oct. 31)
- Info for coaches
- Battle handbook
- Important dates
- Participant forms
- Rules and procedures
- FAQs

For more information, visit:
chq.org/battleofthebooks