V. Resolution Recognizing the Chautauqua Institution and Chautauqua Foundation Staff

Ms. Maxwell referred to the Resolution Recognizing the Chautauqua Institution and Chautauqua Foundation Staff included in the Board’s material and read the resolution aloud.

A motion was made and seconded to approve the following resolution recognizing the Chautauqua Institution and Chautauqua Foundation staff.

Memory will mark 2020 as a historic test of human resilience. Our society, our systems, may be equipped to manage a single catastrophe; but 2020 brought its challenges in great crashing waves, as a global pandemic rocked the economy, rattled institutions and all but silenced the rhythms of normal life. Every individual faced a choice about how to respond; so did every institution. Had the individuals who serve Chautauqua faltered, the Institution and all that it means could not have succeeded.

WHEREAS, the coronavirus pandemic tested the mission of Chautauqua Institution as a laboratory for heart, mind and spirit;

WHEREAS, the staff of Chautauqua Institution and the Chautauqua Foundation rose to every occasion and turned ideas into purpose;

- Took on new roles, learned new skills, shared new responsibilities in the course of reimagining the Institution in real time,
- Reassessed every program and resource to balance safety and possibility,
- Insured that the Grounds would be a refuge for those who could be present while inventing forms of outreach for all who could not,
- Created CHQ Assembly to expand our programs and preserve the space left empty by curfews and quarantines,
- Devised and executed responses to the challenges of 2020 that will serve Chautauqua’s mission well into the future, and
- Did this work bravely, creatively, and with extraordinary commitment to the Institution’s unique importance in American life;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that in deep gratitude for their exemplary service to the Chautauqua Institution, we, the Board of Trustees, do hereby record upon the permanent records of the Institution our sincere thanks and appreciation.

The motion was unanimously approved and adopted.

There being no further business the meeting was adjourned at 4:20 pm.

Respectfully submitted,

Rindy S. Barmore
Corporate Secretary
