2020 REPORT ON PHILANTHROPY
Dear friends,

The report you are receiving is the GOOD NEWS of 2020.

To state the absurdly obvious, the year 2020 will be remembered as one of the most disruptive, painful, deadly years in history. COVID-19 shook our world. Much has been stated and written and much more will be. You do not need me to add to the body of analysis and opinion. Yet one cannot share the good news without acknowledging all that was lost.

For the first time since its founding in 1874, Chautauqua Institution did not bring people together in person to attend lectures, worship or experience the arts. With the advent of CHQ Assembly, the Institution brought speakers, preachers and artists into your homes. While the programs were satisfying and many were richly rewarding, everyone who has experienced Chautauqua in person knew we had lost that which makes Chautauqua the place it is — being together in community.

The Institution, itself, lost its primary source of revenue and overall saw a decline in revenue of approximately $20 million. Management reduced expenses for the year by $13 million.

You came to the rescue. Gifts to the Chautauqua Fund to cover operating expenses of the Institution increased by 36% in 2020. Many of you donated the refunds to which you were entitled by the cancellation of in-person convening, many of you increased your normal Chautauqua Fund contribution, and some of you did both. Many of you made your first gift to the Chautauqua Fund.

Your outpouring of support felt much like a love letter to Chautauqua. Your gifts demonstrated how much you cared for the Institution’s well-being. Your gifts displayed how much you cared for the Institution’s future. In the end, you allowed Chautauqua to plan and create a program for 2021 secure and confident that our risk was manageable.

Your generosity last year was not limited to the Chautauqua Fund. Many of you shared that you included Chautauqua in your estate plans. Some of you made outright gifts to further build Chautauqua’s endowment. Chautauqua’s endowment provides an increasingly important part of our annual revenue stream and in such uncertain times a critically reliable one. Last year, as in every year, the support of Chautauquans who had included Chautauqua in their estate plans became realized adding further to the results shown in this report to you and about you.

Thank you. Your thoughtfulness and spirit of care are overwhelming. As the fortunate leader of the advancement team that works closely with many of you, I know we are blessed to have the opportunity.

With warm regard and deep appreciation, I am

Very truly yours,

Geof Follansbee
Senior Vice President and Chief Advancement Officer

Generous philanthropy takes many forms at Chautauqua, and is unique to each person inspired to give. There are three categories of giving, including contributions to the annual Chautauqua Fund, endowment, and capital and other projects.

Chautauqua Fund
All gifts to the Chautauqua Fund are used to support the Institution’s annual operating budget and the full range of programming Chautauqua offers.

Donors who contributed to the 2020 Chautauqua Fund are recognized on pages 20–40.

Endowment
All gifts to endowment are made to the Foundation for investment and then made available to the Institution according to the spending policy established by the board of directors of the Foundation.

Donors who made endowment gifts in the calendar year 2020 are recognized on pages 41–45.

Capital & Other
All gifts to capital projects and other programs are made directly to the Institution and reported accordingly in its audited financial statements. They primarily support the renovation or construction of facilities and also supplement the operating budget for extraordinary program initiatives.

Donors who made capital or other programs in 2020 are recognized on page 46.

Many companies match employee charitable donations (even if you have retired). Thank you to those who leveraged their company’s matching gift program to double or, in some cases, even triple the impact of their contribution. To see if your company has a matching gift program, check with your employer’s Human Resource/ Personnel office.

In 2020, Chautauqua received $56,065 in matching gifts from 26 different companies and foundations. Generous matches were provided by the following organizations.

AARP
Bank of America
